1. The following were appointed as financial agents of the RPF Service d'Ordre and will be in charge of selling the recently issued RPF "bons de souscriptions".*

Dominique Ponchardier

Claude Dumont (Ponchardier's Assistant)

(fmu) Debarge (Assistant to Dumont; Chief of the Intelligence Service of the Paris Region)

Pierre Demorge (Chief Administrative Services, Paris Region SO)

Maurice Guillaudot (Chief SO Seine Department, excluding Paris)

Marcel Collet (Chief SO for city of Paris)

Alex Prat (Chief SO for Seine-et-Oise Department)

Andre Vannes-Jouves (Assistant Chief SO Seine-et-Oise Department)

Padovani (Assistant Chief Administrative Services)

Rabuseau (Administrative Secretary)

Jean Lamoure (Treasurer of Paris Region SO)

Dr. Grandille

Pitois, Petit, Nikoloff and Voux (Responsables of the Geographic Sectors of the Seine Department)

Roth and Pierre Della Croce (Responsables of the SO Sectors, Seine-et-Oise)

Lamoure and Rabuseau are to handle the administration and accountancy involved in the issuing of these bonds.

2. Ponchardier stated that Financial Agents "should have no scruples" in securing money for the Service d'Ordre. In this connection he suggested that dossiers captured by the SO on members of the pro-Vichy publication "Realisme" be returned to the individuals involved and that these individuals later be requested to purchase RPF bonds. Ponchardier added that every means will be resorted to in order to obtain enough funds to keep going until the end of July.
3. The entire proceeds from this sale of bonds will not go to the Service d'Ordre. Although no percentage has yet been decided upon, Ponchardier is known to have suggested to Alain Bozel, Treasurer-General of the RPF, that at least half of the money collected be for the exclusive use of the Service d'Ordre.

- * See [REDACTED] which stated that the Service d'Ordre has been authorized to collect funds for its own use under the supervision of the RPF Financial Services. It was further stated that bonds in the denominations of 500, 1000, 5000, and 10,000 francs were to be issued to raise money.

-  [REDACTED] Another RPF source reported the following in connection with "Realisme" and the RPF raids against this publication:

- a. "Realisme" is a bi-monthly, anti-Communist, anti-Resistance, anti-Gaullist and anti-Third Force organ of the "Union Realiste" movement. It stands for the rehabilitation of Vichy and the restoration of the "salutary principles of the French State". Reportedly funds are received from a certain Galliere, private business man in Buenos Aires and former Chef de Cabinet of Lemer, Vichy Minister; funds are also regularly provided from unidentified persons or groups in Switzerland, Canada and the United States.
- b. Offices of the publication are at 51 Boulevard St. Michel, Paris. Secretary-General is a certain Tyrand. The Directing Committee includes Pierre Flandin, Chanoine Desgranges, Dardecho, Douthillier, Chasseigne, Benoist Wechin, Taittinger. General Giraud had also been on this Committee. Connected with the publication are the following: Rene Collard, journalist; Paul Joseph Andre; Pierre Demonceaux; Jean Richard; Jacques Dionaine, journalist-editor of "Publicateur de l'Orne" and ex-member of the Franciste Party.
- c. A raid against the offices of "Realisme" was planned by the Service d'Ordre on 6 February. Debarre, assistant to Lt. Dumont, arranged the details of the raid and obtained the support of RPF Municipal Councillors in carrying out his plan. Although orders to cancel the raid were given (following a meeting between Christian Fouchet and Colonel Ponchardier) about 500 Service d'Ordre members disregarded instructions and thoroughly sacked the "Realisme" offices. Dossiers on the members of "Realisme" were captured and taken to SO headquarters. Card files found in the offices were carried off by four members of the Socialist Party who had infiltrated the SO ranks. Source reported that these card files were taken to SFEO headquarters in Paris.
